

LOCAL NEWS.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

The Fulton reports the death of Mr. O. P. Foster, an old citizen of Fulton, last week.

Who said we were to have no winter?

It is only a question of time when the Government will establish a postal telegraph system.

Melting houses never bring floods, but snows that pass off with them are the danger signals.

Business houses are unimpaired and breaking in every direction.

Not a break has occurred at Fulton, and no business is being done in the neighborhood town recently.

A Hickman county judge obtained marriage license from county clerk Taylor, Wednesday, and is to be married next Sunday, but he pleaded so hard not to publish until next week that we withheld the name of the bride-to-be.

The Hickman Skating rink under the management of Edwin S. Timmons, opened at the new City Hall, Wednesday night, and is now the popular spot with all the young people.

The citizens of Troy, Tenn., held a meeting on Jan. 21, and determined that it was necessary to hold a railroad from that place to an intersection with the Chesapeake and Ohio.

The greatest discomfiture to the rank and file of the Democracy just now is the eternal warfare between the great and the small.

Mr. J. H. Williams, neighbor, died Monday, after a brief illness. The deceased was a stranger in this community, but we understand he was well respected.

Two young boys, aged respectively 17 and 18, were drowned at Fulton last week, while skating. This should be a warning to young boys to be careful about the ice they skate on.

Rev. Mr. Pinder, rector of the Hickman Episcopal church, fainted while conducting service Sunday night, and had to be carried home in his carriage.

Mr. Dick Freeman, a young man raised in Hickman, who recently located in Brookville, Florida, died in Jacksonville, last week, of pneumonia.

Why don't the Magistrates do something towards getting a bridge of some kind of a crossing over Bayou de la Poudre?

The city council, at its last regular meeting, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mayor, R. E. Miller.

The election of State Librarian comes off today, the 15th. We hope our members will vote for Mrs. Cook, whose husband sacrificed his life in Hickman in the yellow fever epidemic of 1878.

The Mississippi River Commission say the next work to be undertaken on the Mississippi at New Madrid, is to commence after the spring floods, if the appropriation bill passes, and from the case they are making special appropriation it looks like the general bill will pass.

A little son of Mr. J. H. Hughes, living at Logansport, this colored boy died, his shot taking effect in the white boy's head, killing him instantly.

Mr. J. F. Saunders, of this county, as we learn from other papers, was married to Mrs. Murray, on the 2nd inst., to Miss Sue Williams.

The Mississippi River Commission at its recent session in New York, directed Capt. Knight, engineer in charge, to examine the Hickman fort, and report as to survey, etc., preparatory to an appropriation from Congress to protect said city from the encroachments of the Mississippi river.

Some Hickman young ladies gave a Leap Year Ball at City Hall, Tuesday night, when we learn was most pleasant and enjoyable to all participants.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

Who said we were to have no winter?

It is only a question of time when the Government will establish a postal telegraph system.

Melting houses never bring floods, but snows that pass off with them are the danger signals.

Business houses are unimpaired and breaking in every direction.

Not a break has occurred at Fulton, and no business is being done in the neighborhood town recently.

A Hickman county judge obtained marriage license from county clerk Taylor, Wednesday, and is to be married next Sunday, but he pleaded so hard not to publish until next week that we withheld the name of the bride-to-be.

The Hickman Skating rink under the management of Edwin S. Timmons, opened at the new City Hall, Wednesday night, and is now the popular spot with all the young people.

The citizens of Troy, Tenn., held a meeting on Jan. 21, and determined that it was necessary to hold a railroad from that place to an intersection with the Chesapeake and Ohio.

The greatest discomfiture to the rank and file of the Democracy just now is the eternal warfare between the great and the small.

Mr. J. H. Williams, neighbor, died Monday, after a brief illness. The deceased was a stranger in this community, but we understand he was well respected.

Two young boys, aged respectively 17 and 18, were drowned at Fulton last week, while skating. This should be a warning to young boys to be careful about the ice they skate on.

Rev. Mr. Pinder, rector of the Hickman Episcopal church, fainted while conducting service Sunday night, and had to be carried home in his carriage.

Mr. Dick Freeman, a young man raised in Hickman, who recently located in Brookville, Florida, died in Jacksonville, last week, of pneumonia.

Why don't the Magistrates do something towards getting a bridge of some kind of a crossing over Bayou de la Poudre?

The city council, at its last regular meeting, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mayor, R. E. Miller.

The election of State Librarian comes off today, the 15th. We hope our members will vote for Mrs. Cook, whose husband sacrificed his life in Hickman in the yellow fever epidemic of 1878.

The Mississippi River Commission say the next work to be undertaken on the Mississippi at New Madrid, is to commence after the spring floods, if the appropriation bill passes, and from the case they are making special appropriation it looks like the general bill will pass.

A little son of Mr. J. H. Hughes, living at Logansport, this colored boy died, his shot taking effect in the white boy's head, killing him instantly.

Mr. J. F. Saunders, of this county, as we learn from other papers, was married to Mrs. Murray, on the 2nd inst., to Miss Sue Williams.

The Mississippi River Commission at its recent session in New York, directed Capt. Knight, engineer in charge, to examine the Hickman fort, and report as to survey, etc., preparatory to an appropriation from Congress to protect said city from the encroachments of the Mississippi river.

Some Hickman young ladies gave a Leap Year Ball at City Hall, Tuesday night, when we learn was most pleasant and enjoyable to all participants.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

Who said we were to have no winter?

It is only a question of time when the Government will establish a postal telegraph system.

Melting houses never bring floods, but snows that pass off with them are the danger signals.

Business houses are unimpaired and breaking in every direction.

Not a break has occurred at Fulton, and no business is being done in the neighborhood town recently.

A Hickman county judge obtained marriage license from county clerk Taylor, Wednesday, and is to be married next Sunday, but he pleaded so hard not to publish until next week that we withheld the name of the bride-to-be.

The Hickman Skating rink under the management of Edwin S. Timmons, opened at the new City Hall, Wednesday night, and is now the popular spot with all the young people.

The citizens of Troy, Tenn., held a meeting on Jan. 21, and determined that it was necessary to hold a railroad from that place to an intersection with the Chesapeake and Ohio.

The greatest discomfiture to the rank and file of the Democracy just now is the eternal warfare between the great and the small.

Mr. J. H. Williams, neighbor, died Monday, after a brief illness. The deceased was a stranger in this community, but we understand he was well respected.

Two young boys, aged respectively 17 and 18, were drowned at Fulton last week, while skating. This should be a warning to young boys to be careful about the ice they skate on.

Rev. Mr. Pinder, rector of the Hickman Episcopal church, fainted while conducting service Sunday night, and had to be carried home in his carriage.

Mr. Dick Freeman, a young man raised in Hickman, who recently located in Brookville, Florida, died in Jacksonville, last week, of pneumonia.

Why don't the Magistrates do something towards getting a bridge of some kind of a crossing over Bayou de la Poudre?

The city council, at its last regular meeting, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mayor, R. E. Miller.

The election of State Librarian comes off today, the 15th. We hope our members will vote for Mrs. Cook, whose husband sacrificed his life in Hickman in the yellow fever epidemic of 1878.

The Mississippi River Commission say the next work to be undertaken on the Mississippi at New Madrid, is to commence after the spring floods, if the appropriation bill passes, and from the case they are making special appropriation it looks like the general bill will pass.

A little son of Mr. J. H. Hughes, living at Logansport, this colored boy died, his shot taking effect in the white boy's head, killing him instantly.

Mr. J. F. Saunders, of this county, as we learn from other papers, was married to Mrs. Murray, on the 2nd inst., to Miss Sue Williams.

The Mississippi River Commission at its recent session in New York, directed Capt. Knight, engineer in charge, to examine the Hickman fort, and report as to survey, etc., preparatory to an appropriation from Congress to protect said city from the encroachments of the Mississippi river.

Some Hickman young ladies gave a Leap Year Ball at City Hall, Tuesday night, when we learn was most pleasant and enjoyable to all participants.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

Who said we were to have no winter?

It is only a question of time when the Government will establish a postal telegraph system.

Melting houses never bring floods, but snows that pass off with them are the danger signals.

Business houses are unimpaired and breaking in every direction.

Not a break has occurred at Fulton, and no business is being done in the neighborhood town recently.

A Hickman county judge obtained marriage license from county clerk Taylor, Wednesday, and is to be married next Sunday, but he pleaded so hard not to publish until next week that we withheld the name of the bride-to-be.

The Hickman Skating rink under the management of Edwin S. Timmons, opened at the new City Hall, Wednesday night, and is now the popular spot with all the young people.

The citizens of Troy, Tenn., held a meeting on Jan. 21, and determined that it was necessary to hold a railroad from that place to an intersection with the Chesapeake and Ohio.

The greatest discomfiture to the rank and file of the Democracy just now is the eternal warfare between the great and the small.

Mr. J. H. Williams, neighbor, died Monday, after a brief illness. The deceased was a stranger in this community, but we understand he was well respected.

Two young boys, aged respectively 17 and 18, were drowned at Fulton last week, while skating. This should be a warning to young boys to be careful about the ice they skate on.

Rev. Mr. Pinder, rector of the Hickman Episcopal church, fainted while conducting service Sunday night, and had to be carried home in his carriage.

Mr. Dick Freeman, a young man raised in Hickman, who recently located in Brookville, Florida, died in Jacksonville, last week, of pneumonia.

Why don't the Magistrates do something towards getting a bridge of some kind of a crossing over Bayou de la Poudre?

The city council, at its last regular meeting, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mayor, R. E. Miller.

The election of State Librarian comes off today, the 15th. We hope our members will vote for Mrs. Cook, whose husband sacrificed his life in Hickman in the yellow fever epidemic of 1878.

The Mississippi River Commission say the next work to be undertaken on the Mississippi at New Madrid, is to commence after the spring floods, if the appropriation bill passes, and from the case they are making special appropriation it looks like the general bill will pass.

A little son of Mr. J. H. Hughes, living at Logansport, this colored boy died, his shot taking effect in the white boy's head, killing him instantly.

Mr. J. F. Saunders, of this county, as we learn from other papers, was married to Mrs. Murray, on the 2nd inst., to Miss Sue Williams.

The Mississippi River Commission at its recent session in New York, directed Capt. Knight, engineer in charge, to examine the Hickman fort, and report as to survey, etc., preparatory to an appropriation from Congress to protect said city from the encroachments of the Mississippi river.

Some Hickman young ladies gave a Leap Year Ball at City Hall, Tuesday night, when we learn was most pleasant and enjoyable to all participants.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

Who said we were to have no winter?

It is only a question of time when the Government will establish a postal telegraph system.

Melting houses never bring floods, but snows that pass off with them are the danger signals.

Business houses are unimpaired and breaking in every direction.

Not a break has occurred at Fulton, and no business is being done in the neighborhood town recently.

A Hickman county judge obtained marriage license from county clerk Taylor, Wednesday, and is to be married next Sunday, but he pleaded so hard not to publish until next week that we withheld the name of the bride-to-be.

The Hickman Skating rink under the management of Edwin S. Timmons, opened at the new City Hall, Wednesday night, and is now the popular spot with all the young people.

The citizens of Troy, Tenn., held a meeting on Jan. 21, and determined that it was necessary to hold a railroad from that place to an intersection with the Chesapeake and Ohio.

The greatest discomfiture to the rank and file of the Democracy just now is the eternal warfare between the great and the small.

Mr. J. H. Williams, neighbor, died Monday, after a brief illness. The deceased was a stranger in this community, but we understand he was well respected.

Two young boys, aged respectively 17 and 18, were drowned at Fulton last week, while skating. This should be a warning to young boys to be careful about the ice they skate on.

Rev. Mr. Pinder, rector of the Hickman Episcopal church, fainted while conducting service Sunday night, and had to be carried home in his carriage.

Mr. Dick Freeman, a young man raised in Hickman, who recently located in Brookville, Florida, died in Jacksonville, last week, of pneumonia.

Why don't the Magistrates do something towards getting a bridge of some kind of a crossing over Bayou de la Poudre?

The city council, at its last regular meeting, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mayor, R. E. Miller.

The election of State Librarian comes off today, the 15th. We hope our members will vote for Mrs. Cook, whose husband sacrificed his life in Hickman in the yellow fever epidemic of 1878.

The Mississippi River Commission say the next work to be undertaken on the Mississippi at New Madrid, is to commence after the spring floods, if the appropriation bill passes, and from the case they are making special appropriation it looks like the general bill will pass.

A little son of Mr. J. H. Hughes, living at Logansport, this colored boy died, his shot taking effect in the white boy's head, killing him instantly.

Mr. J. F. Saunders, of this county, as we learn from other papers, was married to Mrs. Murray, on the 2nd inst., to Miss Sue Williams.

The Mississippi River Commission at its recent session in New York, directed Capt. Knight, engineer in charge, to examine the Hickman fort, and report as to survey, etc., preparatory to an appropriation from Congress to protect said city from the encroachments of the Mississippi river.

Some Hickman young ladies gave a Leap Year Ball at City Hall, Tuesday night, when we learn was most pleasant and enjoyable to all participants.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

The Court, from chief to devil, was forgotten—left out in the cold—these girls—these young girls—were bound to speak in praise of them.

DOWN! DOWN! New Goods!

EVERYTHING DOWN!!

We have marked down the prices on every article in our house.

25 Per Cent.

New Everything!

Clothing & Overcoats.

ALEXANDER & MAXWELL.

Are now in their new building at their old stand, and are receiving the largest assortment of Furniture!

Under the name of "J. W. CORMAN & CO."

Give us a call before purchasing elsewhere.

J. W. CORMAN & CO.

WEST KENTUCKY PIONEERS.

J. AMBERG'S SONS, WAG

Dealers in

Dry Goods,

Clothing, Boots, Shoes, Hats and Caps.

For NASHVILLE, Chattanooga, Atlanta, Florida, and the SOUTHEAST!

Call on Nearest Ticket Agent, or Address

E. T. GARDNER,

The Old Reliable Furniture Dealer.

LAUREL HOUSE,

HICKMAN, KENTUCKY.

Memphis, Cairo, Louisville and Cincinnati Steamers.

Granite State.

General Freight and Transfer.

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

The question of removing the Capitol from Frankfort will again come up before the Kentucky Legislature.

Mr. Hayswood has introduced a bill to prohibit the sale of liquor in Second District No. 18, Hickman county.

SENATOR FLEMING was re-elected President of the Senate, Senator Anthony having declined on account of ill health.

Gov. Knott's message as regards education, and sensible. This is a doubtful compliment.

A simple agreement to be made and constitute a valid marriage in New York. In no other State is the law so lax.

The discovery has been made in San Francisco that some of the Chinamen there have been buying and selling slaves.

Every dollar expended in home manufactures is an added cent to the pocket of the manufacturer, but enhancing the value of the farm property and farm products.

Eighty-three counties in Kentucky receive more money from the common school fund than they pay into it. Ten counties which pay only $2,250 receive from the fund $2,500.

There is an old proverb which says, "You can't get out of a bottle that was put in it." That is a mistake. A man can get it out by putting it in another bottle in addition to this get $10 and 30 days.

The ladies who are candidates for Laramie are Mrs. Cook for election, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Fish, of New York, Mrs. Fannie Churchill, of Fayette, and Mrs. Bailey, of Louisville.

It is openly charged not only by the Republicans but the Democratic Press of Ohio that the election to the United States Senate was accomplished by the most shameless bargaining and selling of votes.

Ten elections of Hayes, the head of the Standard Oil Company, to the United States Senate by the Democrats, is not a good record for our party which claims to be the party, and has always been, that opposes monopolies.

Hon. David Merriweather, of Jefferson County, is the oldest member of the General Assembly. He is now 84 years of age and is an hale and hearty man as men at all. Hon. F. L. Hull, of Jackson county, is the youngest member, being but little over 24 years old.

An effort is being made by St. Louis people to have the National Democratic Convention held at that city. At a meeting of the members of the Louisville exchange, the motion to have the free use of their magnificent hall to the Democratic Convention was made by a wealthy Louisville merchant and the motion was adopted by a unanimous vote.

The poison law of Kentucky prohibits druggists from selling any poison whatever without labeling it "poison" and the name of the article, and the place of business of the seller, and cannot sell to a minor or any one without he is satisfied that it is for legitimate use, and is required to keep a register of sales. The penalty is not less than $5 or more than $100 for each offense.

Chas. S. Offutt, Speaker of the Kentucky Legislature is not yet 25 years of age and is the youngest man elected to that position. Hon. Robt. J. Ward, of Scott, in 1825, he studied law under Hon. Jos. C. Phillips, in 1827, and at the end of seven years he is now Speaker of the National House of Representatives and the other of the Lower House of the Kentucky Legislature. Another noteworthy circumstance.

The Kentucky Senatorial fight was a wonder to all outside of the State. The candidates are "ready and able" and the place of the fight is a grand old hero, and Williams returns the compliment by saying that "he is a gallant, able and brilliant general, and he has ready enemies for Col. Seavey."

The fight for United States Senator to succeed Gen. Williams is undoubtedly the most exciting contest in the State. The last ballot stood Williams, 43; Blackburn, 44; Sweeney, 23. Senator Vaughan voted for Blackburn, and Representative Hildford for Sweeney.

The Hickman Courier has been in existence twenty-five years. It is now entering on its twenty-fifth year, and with the exception of a short time, it has been the proprietorship and editorial management of Judge George W. Waters, who has been an excellent editor, for a reason of strength, live three score years and ten. (Hickman County Times)

Queen Victoria has written a book. England has enough trouble on hand now.

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

The question of removing the Capitol from Frankfort will again come up before the Kentucky Legislature.

Mr. Hayswood has introduced a bill to prohibit the sale of liquor in Second District No. 18, Hickman county.

SENATOR FLEMING was re-elected President of the Senate, Senator Anthony having declined on account of ill health.

Gov. Knott's message as regards education, and sensible. This is a doubtful compliment.

A simple agreement to be made and constitute a valid marriage in New York. In no other State is the law so lax.

The discovery has been made in San Francisco that some of the Chinamen there have been buying and selling slaves.

Every dollar expended in home manufactures is an added cent to the pocket of the manufacturer, but enhancing the value of the farm property and farm products.

Eighty-three counties in Kentucky receive more money from the common school fund than they pay into it. Ten counties which pay only $2,250 receive from the fund $2,500.

There is an old proverb which says, "You can't get out of a bottle that was put in it." That is a mistake. A man can get it out by putting it in another bottle in addition to this get $10 and 30 days.

The ladies who are candidates for Laramie are Mrs. Cook for election, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Fish, of New York, Mrs. Fannie Churchill, of Fayette, and Mrs. Bailey, of Louisville.

It is openly charged not only by the Republicans but the Democratic Press of Ohio that the election to the United States Senate was accomplished by the most shameless bargaining and selling of votes.

Ten elections of Hayes, the head of the Standard Oil Company, to the United States Senate by the Democrats, is not a good record for our party which claims to be the party, and has always been, that opposes monopolies.

Hon. David Merriweather, of Jefferson County, is the oldest member of the General Assembly. He is now 84 years of age and is an hale and hearty man as men at all. Hon. F. L. Hull, of Jackson county, is the youngest member, being but little over 24 years old.

An effort is being made by St. Louis people to have the National Democratic Convention held at that city. At a meeting of the members of the Louisville exchange, the motion to have the free use of their magnificent hall to the Democratic Convention was made by a wealthy Louisville merchant and the motion was adopted by a unanimous vote.

The poison law of Kentucky prohibits druggists from selling any poison whatever without labeling it "poison" and the name of the article, and the place of business of the seller, and cannot sell to a minor or any one without he is satisfied that it is for legitimate use, and is required to keep a register of sales. The penalty is not less than $5 or more than $100 for each offense.

Chas. S. Offutt, Speaker of the Kentucky Legislature is not yet 25 years of age and is the youngest man elected to that position. Hon. Robt. J. Ward, of Scott, in 1825, he studied law under Hon. Jos. C. Phillips, in 1827, and at the end of seven years he is now Speaker of the National House of Representatives and the other of the Lower House of the Kentucky Legislature. Another noteworthy circumstance.

The Kentucky Senatorial fight was a wonder to all outside of the State. The candidates are "ready and able" and the place of the fight is a grand old hero, and Williams returns the compliment by saying that "he is a gallant, able and brilliant general, and he has ready enemies for Col. Seavey."

The fight for United States Senator to succeed Gen. Williams is undoubtedly the most exciting contest in the State. The last ballot stood Williams, 43; Blackburn, 44; Sweeney, 23. Senator Vaughan voted for Blackburn, and Representative Hildford for Sweeney.

The Hickman Courier has been in existence twenty-five years. It is now entering on its twenty-fifth year, and with the exception of a short time, it has been the proprietorship and editorial management of Judge George W. Waters, who has been an excellent editor, for a reason of strength, live three score years and ten. (Hickman County Times)

Queen Victoria has written a book. England has enough trouble on hand now.

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

The question of removing the Capitol from Frankfort will again come up before the Kentucky Legislature.

Mr. Hayswood has introduced a bill to prohibit the sale of liquor in Second District No. 18, Hickman county.

SENATOR FLEMING was re-elected President of the Senate, Senator Anthony having declined on account of ill health.

Gov. Knott's message as regards education, and sensible. This is a doubtful compliment.

A simple agreement to be made and constitute a valid marriage in New York. In no other State is the law so lax.

The discovery has been made in San Francisco that some of the Chinamen there have been buying and selling slaves.

Every dollar expended in home manufactures is an added cent to the pocket of the manufacturer, but enhancing the value of the farm property and farm products.

Eighty-three counties in Kentucky receive more money from the common school fund than they pay into it. Ten counties which pay only $2,250 receive from the fund $2,500.

There is an old proverb which says, "You can't get out of a bottle that was put in it." That is a mistake. A man can get it out by putting it in another bottle in addition to this get $10 and 30 days.

The ladies who are candidates for Laramie are Mrs. Cook for election, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Fish, of New York, Mrs. Fannie Churchill, of Fayette, and Mrs. Bailey, of Louisville.

It is openly charged not only by the Republicans but the Democratic Press of Ohio that the election to the United States Senate was accomplished by the most shameless bargaining and selling of votes.

Ten elections of Hayes, the head of the Standard Oil Company, to the United States Senate by the Democrats, is not a good record for our party which claims to be the party, and has always been, that opposes monopolies.

Hon. David Merriweather, of Jefferson County, is the oldest member of the General Assembly. He is now 84 years of age and is an hale and hearty man as men at all. Hon. F. L. Hull, of Jackson county, is the youngest member, being but little over 24 years old.

An effort is being made by St. Louis people to have the National Democratic Convention held at that city. At a meeting of the members of the Louisville exchange, the motion to have the free use of their magnificent hall to the Democratic Convention was made by a wealthy Louisville merchant and the motion was adopted by a unanimous vote.

The poison law of Kentucky prohibits druggists from selling any poison whatever without labeling it "poison" and the name of the article, and the place of business of the seller, and cannot sell to a minor or any one without he is satisfied that it is for legitimate use, and is required to keep a register of sales. The penalty is not less than $5 or more than $100 for each offense.

Chas. S. Offutt, Speaker of the Kentucky Legislature is not yet 25 years of age and is the youngest man elected to that position. Hon. Robt. J. Ward, of Scott, in 1825, he studied law under Hon. Jos. C. Phillips, in 1827, and at the end of seven years he is now Speaker of the National House of Representatives and the other of the Lower House of the Kentucky Legislature. Another noteworthy circumstance.

The Kentucky Senatorial fight was a wonder to all outside of the State. The candidates are "ready and able" and the place of the fight is a grand old hero, and Williams returns the compliment by saying that "he is a gallant, able and brilliant general, and he has ready enemies for Col. Seavey."

The fight for United States Senator to succeed Gen. Williams is undoubtedly the most exciting contest in the State. The last ballot stood Williams, 43; Blackburn, 44; Sweeney, 23. Senator Vaughan voted for Blackburn, and Representative Hildford for Sweeney.

The Hickman Courier has been in existence twenty-five years. It is now entering on its twenty-fifth year, and with the exception of a short time, it has been the proprietorship and editorial management of Judge George W. Waters, who has been an excellent editor, for a reason of strength, live three score years and ten. (Hickman County Times)

Queen Victoria has written a book. England has enough trouble on hand now.

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

The question of removing the Capitol from Frankfort will again come up before the Kentucky Legislature.

Mr. Hayswood has introduced a bill to prohibit the sale of liquor in Second District No. 18, Hickman county.

SENATOR FLEMING was re-elected President of the Senate, Senator Anthony having declined on account of ill health.

Gov. Knott's message as regards education, and sensible. This is a doubtful compliment.

A simple agreement to be made and constitute a valid marriage in New York. In no other State is the law so lax.

The discovery has been made in San Francisco that some of the Chinamen there have been buying and selling slaves.

Every dollar expended in home manufactures is an added cent to the pocket of the manufacturer, but enhancing the value of the farm property and farm products.

Eighty-three counties in Kentucky receive more money from the common school fund than they pay into it. Ten counties which pay only $2,250 receive from the fund $2,500.

There is an old proverb which says, "You can't get out of a bottle that was put in it." That is a mistake. A man can get it out by putting it in another bottle in addition to this get $10 and 30 days.

The ladies who are candidates for Laramie are Mrs. Cook for election, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Fish, of New York, Mrs. Fannie Churchill, of Fayette, and Mrs. Bailey, of Louisville.

It is openly charged not only by the Republicans but the Democratic Press of Ohio that the election to the United States Senate was accomplished by the most shameless bargaining and selling of votes.

Ten elections of Hayes, the head of the Standard Oil Company, to the United States Senate by the Democrats, is not a good record for our party which claims to be the party, and has always been, that opposes monopolies.

Hon. David Merriweather, of Jefferson County, is the oldest member of the General Assembly. He is now 84 years of age and is an hale and hearty man as men at all. Hon. F. L. Hull, of Jackson county, is the youngest member, being but little over 24 years old.

An effort is being made by St. Louis people to have the National Democratic Convention held at that city. At a meeting of the members of the Louisville exchange, the motion to have the free use of their magnificent hall to the Democratic Convention was made by a wealthy Louisville merchant and the motion was adopted by a unanimous vote.

The poison law of Kentucky prohibits druggists from selling any poison whatever without labeling it "poison" and the name of the article, and the place of business of the seller, and cannot sell to a minor or any one without he is satisfied that it is for legitimate use, and is required to keep a register of sales. The penalty is not less than $5 or more than $100 for each offense.

Chas. S. Offutt, Speaker of the Kentucky Legislature is not yet 25 years of age and is the youngest man elected to that position. Hon. Robt. J. Ward, of Scott, in 1825, he studied law under Hon. Jos. C. Phillips, in 1827, and at the end of seven years he is now Speaker of the National House of Representatives and the other of the Lower House of the Kentucky Legislature. Another noteworthy circumstance.

The Kentucky Senatorial fight was a wonder to all outside of the State. The candidates are "ready and able" and the place of the fight is a grand old hero, and Williams returns the compliment by saying that "he is a gallant, able and brilliant general, and he has ready enemies for Col. Seavey."

The fight for United States Senator to succeed Gen. Williams is undoubtedly the most exciting contest in the State. The last ballot stood Williams, 43; Blackburn, 44; Sweeney, 23. Senator Vaughan voted for Blackburn, and Representative Hildford for Sweeney.

The Hickman Courier has been in existence twenty-five years. It is now entering on its twenty-fifth year, and with the exception of a short time, it has been the proprietorship and editorial management of Judge George W. Waters, who has been an excellent editor, for a reason of strength, live three score years and ten. (Hickman County Times)

Queen Victoria has written a book. England has enough trouble on hand now.

THE OLD RELIABLE CHAS. A. HOLCOMB, DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS AND OILS, HICKMAN, KY.

J. W. COWGILL, DEALER IN PATENT MEDICINES, TOILET ARTICLES, &c., &c., &c.

New Stock! TOWELL & BROTHER, FINEST AND FINEST, HICKMAN, KY.

R. B. BREVARD, HICKMAN, KENTUCKY, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

STRONG FACTS! TIVOLI HALL, HICKMAN, KY.

H. A. & R. T. Tyler, Attorneys at Law, HICKMAN, KENTUCKY.

C. L. RANDLE, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Collector, Real Estate Agent, HICKMAN, KY.

LIST OF BARGAINS, About 200 cases of new carpeting, HICKMAN, KY.

J. W. ROGERS, GROCERIES, HICKMAN, KY.

DEPOT FOR F. E. CASE & CO., IN ADDITION TO J. R. BROWN & CO.

Professional Cards, B. F. O'DANIEL, M. D., D. R. A. A. FARIS, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, HICKMAN, KY.

GROCERIES, LIQUORS, HICKMAN, KY.

Caldwell's High School, THE FIFTH YEAR will commence Monday, Aug. 27th, 1888.

BEER SALOON, H. F. FETHE, HICKMAN, KY.

W. DIESTELBLINK, Family Groceries, HICKMAN, KY.

300 REWARD, HICKMAN, KY.

NOTICE, HICKMAN, KY.

81,000 REWARD, HICKMAN, KY.

THROUGH TRUNK LINE, HICKMAN, KY.

FLOR! FLOR! FLOR! HICKMAN, KY.